SIYI CHEN

AUDIO PRODUCER | VOICE CASTING & DIRECTION

New York, NY | 516-728-6427 | siyichen98@gmail.com
Selected work: siyichenmusic.com/scoringproject

Audio producer and composer with five years of experience and credits across 100+ film, animation, game, and commercial projects. Source and direct voice talent, refine casting scorecards, and develop AI character voices, with hands-on responsibility for recording, quality review, and voice-use agreements.

SELECTED EXPERIENCE

Baboon Animation Mar – Sep 2024

Audio Engineer

- Developed audition scripts and voice briefs from original episodes and director notes; invited 3–5 actors per role and recommended shortlists for director approval.
- Refined casting scorecards covering timbre, character fit, clarity, naturalness, and recording quality; added perceived vocal age to distinguish suitability for young characters.
- Scheduled studio sessions, set up Pro Tools and recording equipment, and directed actors on tone, emotion, pacing, and retakes for English-language dubbing.
- Recorded and edited English dialogue as part of the team delivering 50+ episodes of Reggie Rex; owned final QC and exports, checking sync, missing lines, edits, levels, and file specifications.

DramaBox Mar – Aug 2026

Audio Engineer / Post-Production Coordinator

- Created and refined the main characters' voices for I Came Back as a Bad Girl through ElevenLabs voice cloning; adjusted delivery, pronunciation, pacing, and dialogue sync.
- Prepared and tracked AI agreements in DocuSign, checked permitted voice uses before production, and coordinated contractor payment details and tax documentation.
- Maintained a voice library with project and character names, accent and personality notes, and retention flags; consulted producers before retiring assets from released series.

SI Scoring Studio Jun 2021 – Present

Co-founder / Music & Audio Producer

- Source voice actors through Fiverr and established relationships; arrange paid auditions and negotiate fees, usage scope, recording requirements, and revisions directly.
- Direct animation dubbing and branded narration, including a Duolingo × Genshin Impact collaboration; lead recording, translate director feedback into retakes, and complete dialogue edits and mixes.

Umbrella Maam Studio Jul 2024 – Present

Producer / Music and Audio Supervisor

- Supervise music, sound, and dubbing for Flamingo in the Garden, reviewing assets and directing revisions; edited Arabic AI dialogue with pronunciation review by a native-speaking consultant.
